

INSTITUT NATIONAL
DE RECHERCHE
EN INFORMATIQUE
ET EN AUTOMATIQUE

Orientation guide - Visitors

Paris - Rocquencourt Research Center sub-office
23 Avenue d'Italie, Paris

July 2009

Access

Normal business hours: 8am - 7pm on working days (Monday to Friday)

The building is located at 23 Avenue d'Italie, in the 13th arrondissement of Paris. Upon arriving at the entrance to the building you should press the buzzer on the keypad.

An ID must be shown at the reception desk and you will be asked for the name of the INRIA staff member you are visiting or the name of the meeting you are attending. The receptionist will then provide you with an access code for INRIA's premises and a Wi-Fi guest account.

INRIA's premises are located on the 5th and 6th floors and accessed via the 5th floor.

You do not need to provide your access code when exiting.

Outside business hours (8am - 7pm), the person you are visiting must come to greet you at the entrance to the building.

How to reach the building

By metro

Station: Place d'Italie
Lines: 5, 6 and 7

By bus

Station: Place d'Italie
Numbers: 27, 47, 57, 67 and 83

Parking

The nearest car park (not free) is the one of the shopping center "Italie 2", 30 avenue d'Italie Paris 13^{ème}.

Wi-Fi network

The Wi-Fi network is available in our premises.

- At your arrival, the receptionist will provide you a Wi-Fi guest account
- Among the networks available, choose the network : INRIA-guest
- Start a browser
- Enter your login and password